

Welcome four legged-friends!

We are so glad that you and your human have chosen to spend your holidays with us. Good boys and girls are always welcome here!

Please keep muddy paws off the furniture and please don't chew anything except your treats and toys – we don't want you to get a poorly tummy.

A lead of two metres or less is perfect for staying close to your humans and making sure you don't lose them.

Unless you're an assistance dog, you won't be able to help with laundry or washing up as these are human only areas. This also applies to the toilet blocks.

If you fancy a run off the lead then there are lots of places to go adventuring nearby, see over the page for details of a good walk to try.

When you're out and about, please refrain from chasing farm animals (as fun as it might be!). The best way to do this is to ensure your owners keep you on a lead when in a field with animals, this will prevent your instincts getting the better of you. However if cattle or horses decide to chase you, you and your owner will both be much safer if they let go of you. Please remember that it's your owners responsibility to clean up after you wherever you may be (yes, that includes fields and woods).

Please ensure that you always go adventuring with your humans and aren't left alone in the accommodation.

Happy pooching!

Why not share pics of your glamping greyhounds or yurt-shire terriers with other dog-loving guests? Upload on www.experiencefreedom.co.uk/experience and we could feature your furry friend on our website and social pages.

Dog walk

The on-site dog walk is perfect for a run off the lead or for when a dog needs to do his business. Please find its location on the site map provided. Don't forget your poo bags!

There are some great walks to enjoy directly from site – we recommend the scenic route to Batsford Arboretum and Garden Centre: From our site entrance, turn left towards the village. Take the next left into Hospital Road (West Street), and carry on along this road until you reach Oakway House, where you'll turn left. Follow the farm track (MIM site will be on your left), and cross the gates and field until you reach Batsford Arboretum gatehouse, then follow the signs to the entrance.

This walk should take around 45 minutes and you can treat yourself to some well-deserved homemade cake at the end in their dog-friendly Garden Terrace Cafe.

The Cotswolds offers holiday makers, of both the two and four legged kind, a whole host of things to do. Aside from the rolling hills and brilliant walks, the Cotswolds is full of beautiful historical towns to be explored and has many dog-friendly attractions so there's no need to leave your four legged buddy behind!

Cotswold Motoring and Toy Museum

Home to BBC TV's Brum, this museum offers a nostalgic journey through motoring history. Take a mooch with your pooch around the wonderful vintage cars, caravans, motorcycles, enamel signs and unusual toys – it's the ideal day out for lovers of all things vintage.

Birdland Park and Gardens

A trip to the Cotswolds isn't complete without a visit to see the birds at Birdland Park and Gardens. Nestled in a natural woodland setting, you will be able to see over 500 birds, including flamingos, pelicans, penguins, cranes, emus, owls, colourful parrots and even dinosaurs - that's right, there are over 30 life-sized dinosaurs to spot. Well-behaved dogs are more than welcome but must be kept on a lead.

Broadway Tower

Although dogs aren't allowed in the gothic tower itself, this is still rated one of the best dog-friendly attractions in the area thanks to its impressive surroundings, which make a great location for a dog walk. Its 65-foot tower is the second-highest point in the Cotswolds, and offers stunning panoramic views across the landscape.
